BANTO DOMINGO, October 24.—In an engagement between American troops and rebel forces to-day, General Ramon Batista was killed. Several Americans also are reported killed, including two officers, and one American officer was wounded.

The names of the American officers killed are given as Captains William Low and Atwood. Lieutenant Morrison was wounded.

The American commander attempted to arrest General Batista, who resisted and ordered an attack on the American forces. Fighting continued for a considerable time, but the rebels eventually were defeated. The engagement took place opposite Santo Domingo City and caused somewhat of a panie in the capital. Re-enforcements were sent there to aid American troops in maintaining order.
